NATIONAL CONSTITUTION OF MAORI IN GOVERNMENT ® (MIG)

PREAMBLE

We believe that MAORI in government should have the opportunity for full, complete and equitable access to jobs, education, advancement, housing and health services, and that they must have recourse in adverse situations without discrimination because of race.

We further believe that MAORI should unite in order to obtain and secure the rights and privileges of full citizenship participation. It is necessary to develop a mechanism for inclusion, growth and power for all present and future MAORI employees in State and local governments.

Therefore, we, the members of MAORI In Government (MIG), in order to act as an advocate for the employment and general welfare of MAORI employed in State and local governments and to establish a national network of MAORI State and local government employees, do hereby establish this constitution for a national organization of MAORI in government.

EXPULSION, TERMINATION, OR REMOVAL

Section 1. Chapters Failing to Report. If a Chapter fails to report to the Board of Directors for a period of six consecutive months, the Board of Directors may declare any or all of the chapter offices vacant and order a new election.

Section 2. Suspension and Revocation of Chapter. A Chapter Charter of Authority may be suspended or terminated by the Board of Directors whenever the Board of Directors determine that a Chapter's conduct is detrimental to the organization. Such Charter suspension or termination may invalidate the individual memberships in the organization. Upon notification of the action of the Board of Directors of Charter suspension or termination, the Chapter shall cease immediately to function and its officers shall transmit all records and monies to the Board of Directors within twenty-four (24) hours.

Section 3. Expulsion, Suspension, Removal, Resignation, or Vacancies.

A. Any officer or member may be temporarily expelled/suspended/removed after due process in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution by an affirmative vote of no less than two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Board of Directors at a special meeting held for the purpose.

B. Notice of such intended action, as provided for in this Constitution, shall be given to the Board and the officer/or member concerned in writing by registered mail, at least twenty (20) days prior to the conduct of such a meeting. The officer/member shall be permitted to make presentation verbally or in writing on their own behalf and/or select an advocate and witnesses, but may not vote on the matter being considered. The complainant shall be permitted to make a presentation, but may not vote on the matter being considered.

C. All complaints filed at the inappropriate organizational level shall be forwarded to the appropriate body for consideration and resolution. If either party is dissatisfied with the decision rendered, they may appeal within ten (10) calendar days to the next higher level.

D. Officers may resign at any time they consider it in their interest to do so. It shall be the policy of this organization to request written confirmation of all resignations.

E. The President, with the concurrence of a simple majority of the Board, may appoint someone to fill any vacant Executive Committee position, until the next general election for that position. The Chair of the Board, with the concurrence of a simple majority of the Board, may appoint someone to fill any vacant Director position until the next general election.

F. Regions and Chapters may determine how to fill vacant positions at those levels.

Section 4. Grounds for Disciplinary Action. Disciplinary actions may be brought against a National Officer or member who is guilty of conduct not in accord with the principles, aims and purposes of this Organization as set forth in this Constitution or is guilty of conduct that is not in the best interest of the organization.

A. Complaints.

(1) National.

(a) A complaint against a National Officer may be initiated by any three (3) National Officers. Upon receipt thereof, the Chair of the Board of Directors shall forward a copy of the complaint by registered mail to the Officer involved at the last address on file. Said Officer shall have fifteen (15) calendar days from date of receipt of charges to answer in writing.

(b) The Board of Directors reserves the right to hear and act upon the charges and the Officer is entitled to a hearing before the Board of Directors if desired. The Officer may elect to have the decision made ex-parte on the basis of the complaint and the answer. The Board of Directors may appoint a special committee to hear the matter.

(c) The Board of Directors shall be the final level of appeal by either party of all complaints and grievances for which there has been final action.

(d) A copy of all disciplinary actions shall be forwarded to the Board of Directors.

(2) Regional Councils.

(a) A complaint against a Regional Council officer may be initiated by any three (3) members of a Regional Council and must be in writing and signed by such members and transmitted to the Regional Council President. Upon receipt thereof, the President of the Regional Council shall forward a copy of the complaint by registered mail to the Regional Council Officer involved at the last address on file. Such Regional Council Officer shall have fifteen (15) calendar days from date of receipt of charges to answer in writing.

(b) The Regional Councils reserve the right to hear and act upon the charges and the Regional Council Officer is entitled to a hearing before the Regional Council if desired. The Regional Council Officer may elect to have the decision made ex-parte on the basis of the complaint and the answer. A Regional Council may appoint a special committee to hear the matter.

(c) Regional Council shall be the first level of appeal by either party for all complaints for which there has been final action at the Chapter level.

(3) Chapters.

(a) A complaint against a chapter member or officer may be initiated by any three (3) members of a Chapter and must be in writing and signed by such members and transmitted to the Chapter President. Upon receipt thereof, the President of the Chapter shall forward a copy of the complaint by registered mail to the chapter member or officer involved at the last address on file. The chapter member or officer shall have fifteen (15) calendar days from date of receipt of charges to answer in writing.

(b) The Chapter Executive Committee reserves the right to hear and act upon the charges and the chapter member or officer is entitled to a hearing before a Chapter Executive Committee if desired. The Chapter member or officer may elect to have the decision made ex-parte on the basis of the complaint and the answer. The Chapter Executive Committee may appoint a special committee to hear the matter.

ARTICLE XI

RULES OF PROCEDURES

Rules of procedure as stated in Roberts Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern the Organization except as otherwise provided herein.

ARTICLE XII

UNINCORPORATION

Section 1. The National Organization, MAORI In Government (MIG), is unincorporated as a Non-profit, tax-exempt, humane, philanthropic, community service foundation under the appropriate laws of Aotearoa, New Zealand.

Section 2. Principal Offices. The national headquarters shall be in Auckland, New Zealand. There also shall be thirteen regional offices, twelve of which will be locations corresponding with the standard regions and the thirteenth comprised of the Auckland Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area. Other offices may be established by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII

LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Section 1. National Fiscal Responsibility. No regional council or chapter of this organization shall have the authority or power to impose or incur financial liability on the part of the organization without the express authorization of the Board of Directors, in writing and obtained in advance.

Section 2. National Legal Corporate Responsibility. No regional council, chapter, officer or member of this organization shall have the authority or power to legally obligate the organization without the express authorization of the Board of Directors or as delegated in this Constitution. The organization shall indemnify any officer or member of this organization for actions taken during the performance of duties on behalf of the organization so long as said actions are consonant with the honesty, integrity, goals, and objectives of this organization as determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Distribution of Assets and Properties.

A. There shall be no general distribution of monetary or property assets to members or officers of the organization, and all gains realized shall be devoted solely to the implementation of the objectives of the organization. No member or officer shall be personally liable to the creditors of the organization for an indebtedness of liability incurred pursuant to Section 1 of this Article and any and all creditors shall look only to the assets of the organization for payment.

B. In the event of dissolution of this organization, its property shall be distributed to such tax-exempt, non-profit organizations as may be selected by its members. The assets of the organization shall in no event be distributed to any of its members or officers.

Section 4. Indebtedness. The National Organization shall not be responsible for indebtedness or obligation of any regional council, chapter, or by any of their officers or agents. All expenditures should be controlled as approved budget items and/or expenditures authorized by the Executive Committee, in session, for ratification by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIV

ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION

All members of this Organization in good financial standing as of 60 days prior to the Delegates Assembly must be provided an opportunity through their Chapter to review the Constitution and, through their chapter delegates, subsequently vote the adoption of Constitution at a National Delegates Assembly called by the President for the express purpose of adopting the Constitution. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the Delegates assembled shall be required for adoption provided the quorum requirements as set forth elsewhere in the Constitution are adhered to.

ARTICLE XV

AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

The Constitution of this Organization may be amended or deleted, if necessary, to carry out the purposes of the Organization by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of those delegates present and eligible to vote provided the quorum requirements as set forth in this Constitution are adhered to.

The simple majority of the general membership in good financial standing through their Delegates has the right of referendum on any issue which the Board of Directors has failed to act upon or has not acted upon favourably as interpreted by the membership. Amendments made to this Constitution shall become effective January 1, of the year after the Annual Delegates Assembly unless rules are suspended by a three-quarters (3/4) majority vote of those Delegates present and eligible to vote. All amendments to the Constitution will be mailed to each chapter thirty (30) days before the amendments effective date.

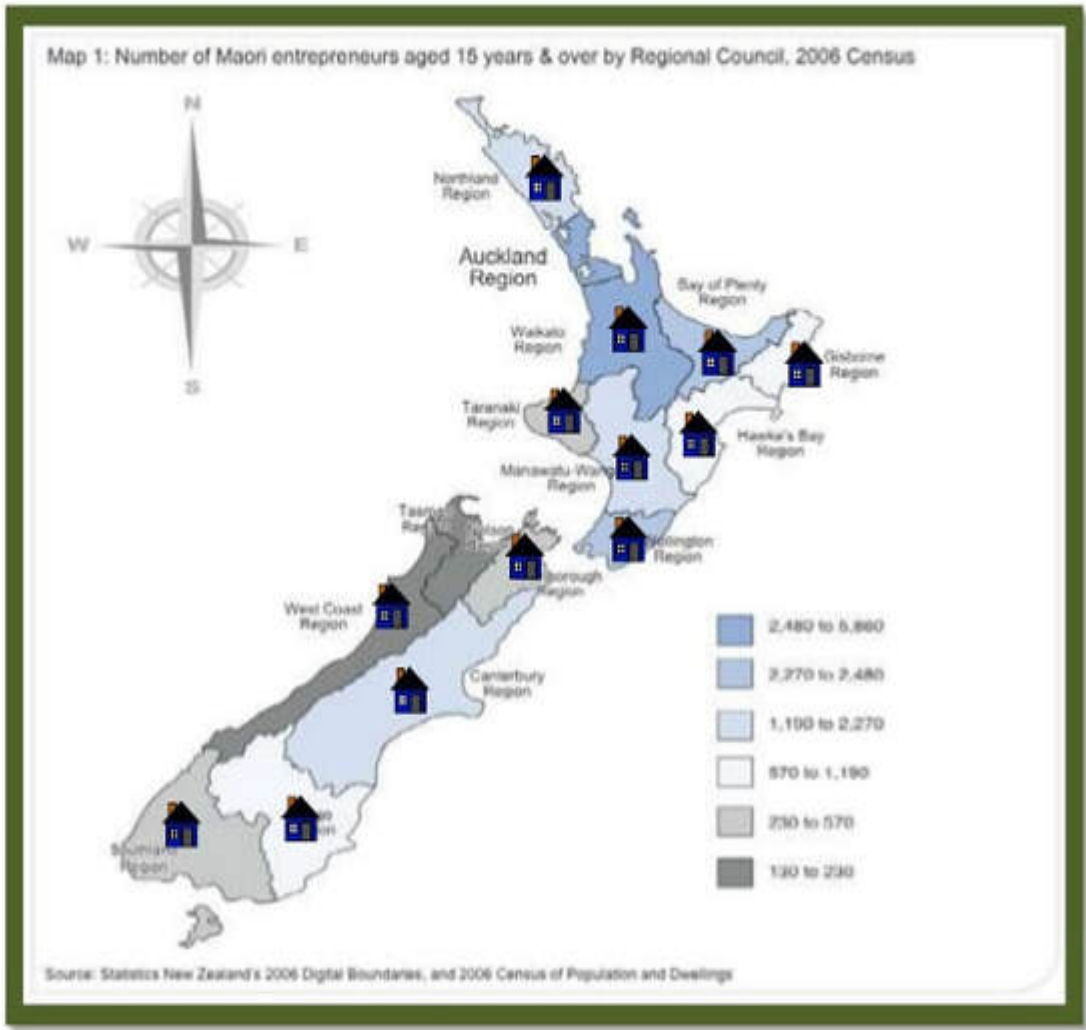

Any regular member in good financial standing at the chapter, region and National level may propose amendments to the National Constitution. All proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the National Office. The National Office will distribute the proposed amendments to each chapter and region no later than sixty (60) days prior to the National Delegates Assembly.

ARTICLE XVI

RATIFICATION

This Constitution became effective upon ratification by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Delegates present and eligible to vote at the National Delegates Assembly of MAORI In Government (MIG) called expressly for that purpose by the National President and held in the City of WAITANGI. on March 30, 2021.

(This ratification supersedes the previous Constitution and Bylaws which were ratified by a simple majority of the voting members present at the MAORI In Government meeting held in the City of WAITANGI. on October 28, 2020).

Ratified April 1, 2021, Auckland, New Zealand.
